Privacy Statement:

As part of its vision, Leonard Cheshire looks forward to a world in which the rights and dignity of each person are respected. This extends to the residents, staff and supporters of the Jersey Cheshire Home.

In line with the Data Protection Act 2005, Jersey Cheshire Home is committed to ensuring that not only are the legal commitments met but also that a culture of good practice is established regarding personal data about its supporters.

We make the following commitments:

- (1) We will keep your personal data safe and will only use the information for purposes relevant to your being a supporter.
- (2) We will not release data to third parties.
- (3) If you inform us of changes to your details, or of your wishes for us to stop sending you certain, or all, mailings, we will amend your details immediately.
- (4) Any supporter may ask to see details of their personal data by contacting The Membership Secretary, at the Jersey Cheshire Home Foundation.
